No rocks of pain or sorrow checked its course or caused a ripple upon the outgoing tide. As peacefully and gently and gently as he had lived no dide, looking until the enu into the eyes of those dear to him.

All the members of his family were by the bedside, with six Abdrew Clark.

The family did not know he was gone until Dr. Clark broke the news to Lady Tennyson. The littled in the eyes to the faces of his watchers and a beautiful smile played over list leadings. As the end came he appeared to fall salency. Hallam says that Lady Tennyson bears up with fortitude under the sorrow that has comes here.

HE ESCAPED FROM SING SING.

Williamson, Therefore, Would Have the Courts Dec'are Him Free. Charlie Williamson, the famous New York Central Railway bond forger, who escaped from Sing Sing Prison fifteen years ago and was found six weeks ago by State Detective Jackson in the Missouri State prison and returned to Sing Sing, was produced before Chambers in obedience to a writ of habeas corpus issued on the application of Lawyer William F. Howe.

Mr. Howe demanded the release of Williamson on the ground that the Penal Code of 1882, by section 84, repealed the law regarding escapes as it existed in 1877, and that, therefore, Williamson was not subject to it. Justice Patterson reserved his decision.
